Mediation Services <sup>[1]</sup>

Sydney Mitchell offer a range of mediation services to meet the needs of other solicitors, businesses and professional advisors.

We are able to provide very competitive mediator rates and as part of our package can also provide the mediation venue. We accept instructions directly from solicitors (and other professionals), businesses and overseas companies. Subject to reasonable travel expenses being met, we are willing to travel to mediations both nationally and internationally.

Sydney Mitchell can also offer mediation services direct to partnerships involved in disputes, to employers in respect of work placed disputes, to individuals involved in boundary disputes and to organisations involved in all types of disputes.

Mediation is a very specialised area where Sydney Mitchell benefit from the qualifications and experience of Dean Parnell <sup>[2]</sup>, joint head of the dispute resolution team.

Dean has been involved in mediations for over 10 years and has personally undertaken over 50 commercial mediations as lead mediator. He has mediated a wide range of disputes including shareholder disputes, professional negligence, partnership disputes, employment issues, property disputes, warranty and contractual disputes. These have ranged in value from £45,000 to multi million pound disputes.

For further information about our mediation services please contact Dean Parnell <sup>[2]</sup> on 0121 698 2200 or fill in our online enquiry <sup>[3]</sup> form.
