Professional Negligence

Professionals make mistakes too!

If you feel that you have suffered as a consequence of inadequate advice given by a qualified professional you may be entitled to make a claim for professional negligence.

Professionals are legally bound to exercise “reasonable skill and care” when dealing with clients and their affairs. Unfortunately on occasions the appropriate standard of care is not met and you will suffer a financial loss.

Sydney Mitchell’s team has extensive experience of recognising and bringing professional negligence claims against:

- Solicitors
- Accountants
- Surveyors
- Valuers
- Financial advisors
- Barristers
- Architects

Recent examples of successful cases:

- A claim against a firm of solicitors for failure to advise correctly on a deceleration of trust
- Various claims against valuers for an over valuation of commercial and residential property
- A claim against a commercial solicitor for incorrectly drafting a share sale agreement
- A claim against a litigation solicitor for incorrect advice on a property dispute
- A claim against a family solicitor for not advising correctly on a divorce ancillary relief proceedings
- Financial advisors for negligent advice on Tax schemes
- Litigation solicitors for missing deadlines

Whatever the problem Sydney Mitchell Professional Negligence Team can help you.

Call us on 0121 746 3300 or email us and one of our team will call you to discuss the matter.
