Dispute Resolution for Healthcare Professionals <sup>[1]</sup>

Dispute Resolution for Healthcare Professionals

Working in the Healthcare sector requires a sensitive approach. Disputes can arise whether you're dealing with patients as a GP or dentist, or elderly residents and their family in a care home.

Construction disputes

Construction disputes are common if you're setting up a new practice or building a new care home. Sydney Mitchell has a team of solicitors trained specifically in alternative dispute resolution <sup>[2]</sup>. They will carefully and sensitively try to resolve your dispute without the need for court action, saving you from undue stress and most importantly saving you money.

To find out how Sydney Mitchell's dispute resolution solicitors <sup>[3]</sup> can help contact us today by filling out our online enquiry form. <sup>[4]</sup>
