

What happens if you die without a will?

Notes

- Children includes adopted and illegitimate children but excludes stepchildren
- Children receive their inheritance on reaching 18, or earlier if they marry
- Descendants share equally the parts that the deceased parents would have taken
- No-one can inherit unless they outlive you by 28 days; if who died first is not known then the younger is presumed to have outlived the older

The crown, Duchy of Lancaster or Duchy of Cornwall takes your entire estate. *

They may decide at their discretion to provide for your dependents. Otherwise, in the absence of a claim under the inheritance (Provision for Family and Dependents) Act 1975 your estate will be distributed for charitable purposes.
