

Moving House

At Sydney Mitchell, our solicitors and personnel have been providing legal services to the community for over 260 years. Our reputation is built on the high standard of service, advice and care that we offer.

We understand that your property transaction may be the biggest financial commitment and investment of your life, which is why we have dedicated teams and staff on hand, together with the latest technology to make it as smooth as possible.

We have invested heavily in staff training and in excellent computer systems. Our technology is designed specifically with your transaction in mind. It includes Case Management Systems and on-line search facilities, providing instant access to search providers including Local Authorities, Utility Companies and the Land Registry enabling us to process your transaction efficiently and with the minimum of delay.

When you need a safe pair of hands ...

...you can put your trust in us

We offer the following Property Services:

Property Sale & Purchases

We have Property Specialists to hand to deal with all types of property sales and purchasing including leasehold and freehold properties, flats and apartments, new properties and shared ownership housing association properties.

Your business is important to us and will be dealt with by experienced and friendly staff, dedicated to making your transaction as stress and hassle free as possible.

Our domestic conveyancing department handles around 5000 house sales and purchases each year, and we are highly regarded by our clients, estate agents and fellow professionals for the services we offer.

Property Transfers

We are able to deal with transfers of property which are held in trusts, the handling of property being transferred as a gift, and the property transfers resulting from a divorce or separation.

Conveyancing Solicitors & Remortgaging Advice

If you are looking for friendly, approachable and efficient conveyancing services from experienced and committed staff, our conveyancing department offers you all of this. The numerous purchasers who have employed our services over and over again will certainly vouch for that.

Re-mortgage

There are many reasons why it may be necessary to raise additional finance or change the mortgage on your property. We have many years of experience acting on behalf of mortgage lenders and borrowers in re-mortgages, providing a speedy and flexible service allowing you to meet your objectives.
